In the war which has started in Hitler, the Slav nations were up against the problem: there is no other as Hitlerism, and then for the Slavs, Czechs, Serbs, Poles, and other Slav people awaits infallible extermination, or the Slav nations will exist, and then Hitlerism must be swept from the surface ground. Three years of war and the so called "new order" brought by Hitler to the conquered Slav areas, has very clearly shown that there is no other alternative; that all compromises are here absolutely excluded.

On a somewhat wider range the affair reveals itself the same for other conquered nations. The victory of Hitlerism could at first form a sinister perspective for the entire coalition of democratic powers. "Hitlerism, as the top word of German imperialism, comes from the foundation that "destiny of the German race is to give the world a new class of masters". Governing themselves with this principle, they tend to subordinate for themselves all the people, and in the German race it broke loose such instances and such strength, which either will be quickly destroyed, or they will destroy all, which stands in their plans of conquest.

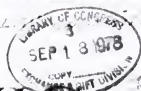

The Slavs, for whom history has placed Germany as their neighbors, have always been the object of German aggression and simultaneously the obstacle for German expansion. Hitlerites have resolved to abolish this obstacle, realizing that the entire subjugation and extermination of surrounding Slav nations will allow Germans further expansion, that is for the realization of plans in conquering the world. That is also why the struggle of Hitlerites with the Slavs is especially furious, and Hitler's danger of a joint extermination sets tasks before the Slavs that are especially stingy.

There is concern about the proposals, which obtrude themselves with iron logic from the existing position of matters, there is concern about self-defense against the mad attack of Hitler's multitude. There is concern about uniting all the strength, first so as to destroy Hitlerism and secondly, to arrange the world, so as to put an end to German aggression once and forever and to form a condition whereby neither Germany nor any other fascist aggression could repeat itself.

The class of the Slav nations are hidden with the program of all the nations struggling against Hitler and in the program of Anglo-Soviet-American coalition.

In the speech made on November 2, 1943, Stalin gave a most accurate and concise definition of the nature of this coalition:
